

DR. SAAD JASIM

SJ Environmental Consultants (Windsor) Inc.
Past President of the International Ozone
Association (IOA), 2020-2022

Received his BSC. From Baghdad University, Iraq, PHD and MSC, from University of Wales, Swansea, UK. He serves as president of International Ozone Association. President of SJ Environmental Consultants (Windsor) Inc., also he serves as the Editor-in-Chief for the OZONE NEWS, International Ozone Association, and an Adjunct Professor at the University of Windsor, Canada. He Served as Director, of Great Lakes Regional Office-International Joint Commission (IJC), Canada and USA. Founding CEO for the Walkerton Clean Water Centre following the outbreak tragedy. He Introduced Ozone as primary disinfectant to the City of Windsor in 2001. Designed a water reuse system for Green House operation in Canada. Received many awards for his work. He developed project for the Reuse of Treated Sewage Effluent at Qatar Environment and Energy Research Institute (QEERI). Over the past 25 years, Dr. Jasim has focused his professional engineering work on health and safety, He works on projects for “Removal of Cyanotoxins in Surface Waters Using Ozone & Advanced Oxidation Processes” Dr. Saad received the Engineering Medal – Entrepreneurship from the Ontario Society of Professional Engineers (OSPE) for his innovative work on complex water quality issues with government, industry and academia.